

The FCC is going the wrong direction to consider further multiple ownerships. The last easing was obviously a disaster for the public and must be reversed. PS I am a conservative Republican.